the by his advocacy of the continuance of private cabetands and the draining of POLICEMEN KILLED

EXPLAIN HOLDUP.

call on Mr. Du Vivier and explain why he committee of which he is chairman nsisting of Aldermen Coleman, Mo-Cann. Conningham, Marks, Boiles and Brush and himself-has not reported a taxicab ordinance to the full board, arwork of the Mayor's Commission and the other of Aldermen Marks and Meagher-the inter recently resigned

Alderman Grimm . Il not be called before the Grand Jury, Neither will Aldermen McCaffr and Coleman. Aldermen Bolles, Marks and Brush will be called possibly Alderman Cunninghan was only recently made a member of the Taxleab Committee. Alderme. ies, Marks and Brush are prepared to tell the Grand Jury of peculiar ounumbers of the committee appointed to the private stand graft.
After some of them had dodged sertaxicans and touring cars, subpormes ny of the subordinates of the Yellow Tax.cab Company. When Mr. Whitman and Mr. Du Vivier tound our what was up, they sent word that if further atpany to be served with a subposen was had struck ifeaney. Harry R. Swarts. Treasurer and director, In a short time he and Mr. White-

TAXICAB TRUST OFFICIALS MAY hanting since. "TELL THINGS."

From its promise to tell all the facts tempts to procure new taxicab logistabeen any community of interest here-tofore between the officials of the Yellow

ALDERMAN GRIMM INVITED TO BY PAIR OF GUNME BULLETS INDICATI

wo Revolvers of Different Calibre Were Used In Slaying Teare and Heaney.

CROWD SEES FUNERAL.

Commissioner Waldo, Bluecoats and Crowd Honor

Teare at Service.

District-Attorney would take druntle Policemen Teare was from a 22-calibre the Grand Jury of the men they want.

Then came George W. Whiteside, counsel for the company, and assured Mr.

Whitman that there would be no formed upon Heaney's body by Corattempt to evade service. The oner's Physician Otto Schultz revealed first efficial of the Tellow Taxions Com- | the fact that no less than three shots side called on Mr. Du Vivier and as- a doorway on the Mulberry street line sared him the company would do every- of tenoments after the fusilinds that in its power to enable the Grand laid low the two policemen and John make a complete inquiry into Hiszo, the gangater; that man was surrounding the taxicab situs. Oresto Shieldiana, for whom mores of Oresto Shieldians, for whom scores of detectives and policemen have facts concerning the different sizes of the bullets that killed the two Coroner Feinberg held his preliminary hearing into the three murders to-day. "I believe the facts brought out by

CORONER BELIEVES MORE THAN ONE MAN GUILTY.

He held John Larte of No. 20 Mulberry

Tears had grown up with the village, and the fond affection of all the neighborhood had been showed on him as "one of the bega." When the funeral cortige began to form in front of the old-fashioned brick house where Tears had invested essent essistences with the officials of the Tellow Taxicals Company to the last few weeks, and there have been blocked with a throng of neighborhood folk, who stood in elience and with heads bared.

Not a man or woman was there but had a prayer in his heart for the repose of Charley Tears's soul—a bunye man who had been should an income where the first lived with his widowed mother, only a few doors away from the house where he was born, the streets on all sides were blocked with a throng of neighborhood folk, who stood in elience and with heads bared.

Not a man or woman was there but had a prayer in his heart for the repose of Charley Tears's soul—a bunye man who had been should an him as "one of the bega." When had a prayer in his heart for the repose of Charley Tears's soul—a bunye man who had been should an him as "one of the bega." When he does not not had a prayer in his heart for the repose of Charley Tears's soul—a bunye man who had been should an him as "one of the bega." When he does not not had a prayer in his heart for the repose of Charley Tears's soul—a bunye man who had a prayer in his heart for the repose of Charley Tears's soul—a bunye man who had been should an in the part of the old-fashioned briek house where Tears and "one of the bega." When the funeral cortige began to form in front of the old-fashioned briek house where Tears and the fond affection of the began." When he does not had a man or where Tears and the fond affection of the began and the fond affection of the began in front of the old-fashioned briek house where Tears' soul the page of the began in the page of the began in form in front of the old-fashioned briek house where Tears' soul the page of the began in the page of the began in form in front of the old-fashioned briek house where Tears' o

riges with a desire, and so COMMISSIONER WALDO AND DEP.

Capt. Kinsler of the Mulberry stree borne down the steps on the shoulders of six big men in blue. Commissioner Waldo and First Deputy Commissioner McKay were there to ride behind the

Here's Dear Miss Civic Pride, Who Made Her Debut To-Day

OH, LOOK WHO'S HERE!

MISS CIVIC PRIDE HAS

BROKEN INTO SOCIETY

on Top of New Municipal Building.

mann, to a room in the house at No. appeared from the street to represent fast Fourteenth street on April 13, either a bowl of gold fish or a bomb. ctive Schmidt and other police officers warranted him in postponing the inquest into the death of Levine and sending Harris to the Tombs.

Levine was found dead in a flat in the Pourteenth stroet house. The surround-ings indicated he had been shot while casket, as were Capas at the signer of the Fusion ordinance matter at the signer of the Fusion matter in the function of the function keeping an engagement with persons who had planned to murder him. Har-ris was arrested as a material witness the right nor left and not once break-ing from the line. who participated in the Levine murder.

RAIGH TAXI RATE.

Grimm or his advisors would like the stricture of the control o from the engine room of the building pacing stock. The horse was twenty-got Duygan out. He had been buried seven years old.

25 SILK WORKERS ARRESTED IN RIOT AT PATERSON MILL

Two Hundred Others March to French Aviator Frangeois Rises Village of Ridgewood, but Are Driven Back.

QUINLAN ON THE STAND

Denies at His Trial for An archy That He Used Inflammatory Words.

wood, eight miles north of Paterson, N. J. They were met on Maple avenue to that place by Chief of Police Peter Pullis with a squad of men. The police charged with night-sticks, and after resisting momentarily the mob scattered. Under Sheriff Robert Heath of Bergen County, on hearing of the trouble, took a squad of deputies to Ramsey, fearing a descent on the water works at that of the World, ever uttered the

ORDERS THEM TO GUT OUT THE CIRCUS STUFF.

more not again looking at his crowd of

She Makes Her Golden Debut

a mob of strikers let the hall, rushed that of police witnesses and having t to go and "get" Shieldiano. They were reader, this is not a description of these words. Chief of Police John Bimstreen enough to defray their expenses, if Mile. Hoopia Gasiff, the adorably and son made a good witness for Quinlan. an out-of-town trip were necessary.

The murderer is as much hated by the aerial artists of the circus, but of Miss. these words. Chief of Police John Bim. wardre decious and absolutely astounding QUINLAN TAKES THE STAND IN

The murderer is as much hated by the galacters as by the police, and, as the latter body views the situation, if the gangeters cannot find Shieldiano they surely cannot.

GUNMAN IS IN TOMBS

AFTER INVESTIGATION

OF LEVINE MURDER.

Information presented to Coroner Haileneein by the police to-day, and not made public, led to the commitment to the Tombs of Max Harris of No. 177 Norfolk street, en a charge of being one of the five men who lured Max Levine, a gunman, to a room in the house at No. 37 Reat Fourteenth street on April 15, and murdered kim The Coroner residents of the circus, but of Miss Coving Miss and not made public, led to the commitment to the Tombs of Max Harris of No. 177 Norfolk street, en a charge of being one of the five men who lured Max Levine, a gunman, to a room in the house at No. 37 Reat Fourteenth street on April 15, and murdered kim. The Coroner simple of the circus, but of Miss and sold of the circus, but of Miss and sold of the circus, but of Miss and the thirty-foot golden goine circus, but of Miss Coving Miss and whetted the public interests, whe tips the topmost tip of the circus, but of Miss Levine, and morting the circus, which is that he never uttered the words attributed to him and was not only the morting that the morting that the never uttered the words attributed to him and was not only the morting that the more unterested to him and was not only the public levine to the fines, which is that the never uttered the besides the more unterested to him and was not only the more unterested to him and dajourned.

Quinlan said he had reached the hall and mounted the plat

Pamone Old Racer Dead.

WARRENSBURG, Mo., May & -- Walnut Boy, the famous pacing stallion which made the fastest pacing record of and it dropped into the basement, carrying with it Joseph Duygan of No. 312 My breading horse on exhibition at the Willis avenue, the Bronx, and a load of heavy crates. Policeman Katz and men from the engine room of the building

FLIES WITH SIX FOR 75 MINUTES

2,300 Feet and Breaks World Time Record.

CHARTRES, France, May 1.—The French airman Frangeote to-day carried six passengers on his biplane during a seventy-five-minute flight, the duration record for an aeropiane bearing such large number of persons. Frangeois in his flight reached as attitude of 2,000 feet.

Two hundred striking sitk workers BRITAIN IN TERROR

Chief of Police Bimson of Paterson ordered the police to disperse a discorderly mob near the Doherty & Wadsworth mill. Twenty prisoners were members of the fighting sisterhood promise that the events of the last few days are to be selipsed by worse the spot where they find seen him lost. One minute—two, and then five and ten promise the Workers without sight of the swimmer.

BEEN KNOWN FOR DECADES." inflammatory language for which he Votes for Women, the woman suffrage is on trial before Judge Elenert in the newspaper, edited by Mr. and Mrs.

"We see before the country a per for decades, perhaps for centuries. We cendo. We see the likelihood of crimes who had congregated outside the court- being sympathised with, if not condoned, house. They cheered wildly as he ap- and approved by many of the most recerned about the increase of violence and bomb attacks on buildings, another of which occurred at Tottenham, in the that many of the former constitutions ave indictments, all of them charging suffrage bill, and they cay there is no him with having preached amerchy, incited to riot and advecated the destruc"General" Mrs. Flora Drummond suddenly collapsed and fell in a heap on the floor of the prisoners' enclosure at the Bow Street Pellos Court this morning when preceedings under the Malicious Damage to Property act were resumed against the seven militant suffragetts leaders of the Women's Social and Political Union and their chemical adviser. She was practically carried out of court by a jailer and a "YOUNG HOT BLOODS" BRANCH

OF SUFFRAGETTES.

hand, holding a slobular superaced from the street to represent appeared from the street to represent the street to represent the superaced from the street to represent the superaced from the superaced from the street to represent the superaced from the support of the

was struck to-day by the owners of sev-eral ; ubite halls where the women were accessiomed to meet issuing a notifica-tion that the deors would be closed to ning, who amused herself to-day by painting green broad arrows on the bust of John Redmond in the Royal Hiber-John Gallison, a well known breeder of pacing stock. The horse was twentyseven years old.

SUFFRAGETTE PAINTS REDMOND BUST GREEN.

The horse was twentyseven years old.

The beautiful Phologravures, cupies of famous paintings, will be given with next stunies a week in which to pay a small smalley's World. Pictures are estable for framing; on heavy art pages, and represent historic enhication the criginals of temp being in the Metropolitan Museum and the had attached a card to John Redmond's built bearing the words "A traitor's face in no ornament factors painting."

PIRST OFFICER WHO RESCUED A CRAZED SAILOR IN MIDOCEAN.

hidden water.
"Ahoy," called Blair and as his ship mates answered, he shouted back.

"Keep off," he said. 'T'm all right,
The other chap's a dosen yards ahead. Straight on the way you're going. Don't mind me. I can keep up." officer as he shouted and saw in the direction of his guiding finger pointing straight shead of him. They followed his command and an instant later say yards shead

A few strokes brought them along-side the demented man-crased, they of which occurred at Tottemann, in the northeast of London, this morning. Like the boat. But dragged in he was and that deposited yesterday in St. Paul's that deposited yesterday in St. Paul's Cathedral, the bomb was discovered before it had time to explose. It was found by a caretaker octable the door the former octable the door to where Blair was treatile was pulled back to where Blair of a pawnbroker's shop.

The authorities have secured evidence that many of the former constitutional minutes in the water. The freman had been improved for three-quarters of the avoid similar expariences during his been improved for three-quarters of the avoid similar expariences during his PASSENGERS CHEER BLAIR FOR lined the rail cheering heartly for Blair, the men were hustled into the sick bay. the men were hustled into the sick bay. Ship's Surgeon C. E. Milnes-Hey took them in hand. A hot drink and an alcohol rub made Siair as good as new. In a few minutes, clad in garments more presentable than his pajamas, he was striving to dodge the congratulations of the passengers and reach his cabin. The fireman, William Kelwen, was put to bed under a guard, for his experience in the water had completed the mental derangement which the intense heat of the stokehole had started. The Majestic arrived here to-day, the

The Majestic arrived here to-day, the passengers still gossiping of the thrilling reactive two days ago and teiling each other where they had stood when Blair dived overboard, how they had seen Kelwen rush from the stoke hole and how they had felt as they waited for the return of the rescuers.

For two days the rescue has been the only topic of conversation, and as a result of it Blair will receive the finest pair of binoculars that money can buy. A purse of $250 was taken up by the admiring passengers, and the glasses, suitably inacribed, will be presented to the first officer just as soon as they can be selected and delivered.

UNION BANK IS NON-SUITED.

Court Rules $150,000 Note of Sullivan le Berend Action. The suit of the Union Bank of Brooklyn, which took over the affairs of the defunct Mechanics and Traders' Bank after the pante of 1907, against President David A. Bullivan and eight of the di rectors of the latter institution, for $150,-Supreme Court, Brooklyn, by Justice Manning. The Union Bank alleged that, to cover the Union Bank alleged that, to cover the illegal uses of bank's money, Sul-livan and the directors had substituted in the bank's assets a note for $150,000, on which it sued to recover. Justice Manning ruled that as no consideration

TO HOSPITAL, SICK

socked through airs. Schroeser's hat themising perhaps Winkelmann might have slipped in there and hidden. But there was no truce of him and at has Gartenback, searching about, discov-ored the collar door behind the frust status and flung it open. There, at the foot of the stairs, stood Winkelmann.

BELF TO DEATH. "Here's your patient, Doc," the policeman cried, and started down the stales framing a question to Winkelmann meant to be a good natured jest even his hiding, which should reasone bim when the junted man-panied a revelop from his pocket.

Gertenbach yould and leaped down the remaining stairs, throwing himself the remaining stairs, throwing himse on the old man just as Winkelman revolver close to his own right tems and the builet he discharged had tered his brain. stant after Winkelmann had cotte the arms of the policeman who he

"We're too late. He'll never go to the

"UNCLE JOE," 77, LIKE BARKIS, "STILL WILLIM"."

During the late afternoon many neighbors and old friends called, and a delegation from the local lodge of

DIED.

HEGGERMAN—New York, May 7, MAR, GARET, aged 53 years, at 116 East 59th et.

Funeral Friday at 10 A. M.: thence to 8t. Ignatius's R. C. Church, at 11 A. M. where requiem mass will be offered for the happy repuse of her soul. Interment Calvary Cemeiery. Arrangements by Undertaker William Necker. LOST, FOUND AND REWARDS.

LOUT - Deeds of property, between 76th and 96th one, and Ameterdam av. Liberal reward of se terroed to Miss Bisic Carter, Elio W 86th et. LOUT - Black and white Journess spanies from 16 E, roth et. Suitable roward. HELP WANTED-MALE

(D) 1997 (A) 1997 (A) 1997 (A) 1997 (A)

Special for Friday Special Crystell and Color of the Color of t

Park Row, Certiandt and 136th street stores upon every evening until 11 s'eles

See BROADWAY
Cor. Pultes St.
147 HASSAU STREET
Bet. Bestman & Spruss Sta
266 W. 125th STREET
Just Bast of Sth Ave. SA BARCLAY STREET Cor. West Broadway
So CORTLANDT ST.
Cor. Church Street
Print Row & Names St.
At City Hall Park